- 4. they are willing to accept a level of risk to achieve potential returns that is consistent with the summary risk indicator shown below.

The product is not intended to be offered to retail clients who do not fulfil these criteria.

2. What are the risks and what could I get in return?

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you. We have classified this product as 7 out of 7, which is the highest risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a very high level, and poor market conditions are very unlikely to impact our capacity to pay you.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment. If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

For detailed information about all risks relating to the product please refer to the risk sections of the prospectus and any supplements thereto as specified in the section "7. Other relevant information" below.

What you will get from this product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted.

The scenarios shown are illustrations based on results from the past and on certain assumptions. Markets could develop very differently in the future.

| Recommended holding period: | 1 day EUR 10,000 | | |

| Favourable | What you might get back after costs Percentage return (not annualised) | EUR 7,388 -26.12% | |

The favourable, moderate, unfavourable and stress scenarios represent possible outcomes that have been calculated based on simulations using the reference asset's past performance over a period of up to 5 years. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

3. What happens if ING Bank N.V. is unable to pay out?

You are exposed to the risk that the issuer might be unable to meet its obligations in connection with the product for instance in the event of bankruptcy or an official directive for resolution action. This may materially adversely affect the value of the product and could lead to you losing some or all of your investment in the product. The product is not covered by any deposit protection scheme.

4. What are the costs?

The person advising on or selling you this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

Performance scenarios

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest and how long you hold the product. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.

We have assumed:

- · You would get back the amount that you invested (0% return).

5. How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

Recommended holding period: 1 day

Sudden changes in the value of the product can occur frequently, accordingly the recommended holding period is 1 day or less. The value of the product should be monitored constantly.

The product does not guarantee the possibility to disinvest other than by selling the product through the exchange. Save as otherwise disclosed in exit costs (see section "4. What are the costs?" above), no fees or penalties will be charged by the issuer for any such transaction, however an execution fee might be chargeable by your broker if applicable.

In addition to selling the product through the exchange if the product is listed or off-exchange you may exercise the product on specific dates by the giving of an exercise notice to the manufacturer. If applicable, details regarding the delivery of an exercise notice and the amount you will receive on such early exercise are described in more detail under "1. What is this product?" above.
